

RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS

THE ART & SCIENCE OF TRACKING: DISCOVER WILDLIFE MYSTERIES

Many people wonder "Where's all the wildlife?" when they take a walk in Nature. The truth is that wild animals are very secretive & elusive. Fortunately, they leave ample evidence of themselves in the form of tracks & signs. In this fascinating & field-oriented workshop Naturalist & Wildlife Biologist Vincent Pinto will help you learn the key concepts of Tracking. With the knowledge acquired in this class you'll soon be able to read "the Language of the Land" as written by the wildlife that surrounds you!

WHEN: FEBRUARY 27

WHERE: RAVEN'S NEST Nature Sanctuary by Patagonia Lake

TUITION: $50

Ethnobotanist, Naturalist, Wildlife Biologist, & Wilderness Survival Instructor, Vincent Pinto and his wife, Claudia, run RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS - dedicated to the Conservation and Protection of Nature, Wildlife, and the Environment through a wide variety of Eco-friendly Programs and Adventures!
