

RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS

FLINT-KNAPPING:

THE ART OF MAKING STONE TOOLS

Arrowheads, Spearpoints, Stone Saws, Stone Knives, Pecked Bowls - you'll discover how to create these and more through the ancient art of Flint-Knapping. You will learn how to collect lithic sources and to make the tools required to shape them into beautiful and functional artifacts. Wilderness Survival Instructor & Naturalist Vincent Pinto will guide you step by step into becoming a competent Flint-knapper!

WHEN: MARCH 9 - 9:00am - 4:00pm

WHERE: RAVEN'S NEST Nature Sanctuary by Patagonia Lake

TUITION: $60 - includes all materials

Ethnobotanist, Naturalist, Wildlife Biologist, & Wilderness Survival Instructor Vincent Pinto and his wife, Claudia, run RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS. RWWJ is dedicated to the Conservation and Protection of Nature, Wildlife, and the Environment through a wide variety of Eco Adventures & Educational Programs, - raising awareness about the unique Biodiversity of the Sky Islands! Vincent has been promoting Environmental Conservation & teaching about the wonders of the Natural world throughout the country since 1987.