

RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS

NATURE TREK CIENEGA CREEK

This remote Wilderness beckons the curious Naturalist with its unique Biodiversity. Five different habitat types in the American Southwest: Cienegas, (marshlands) Cottonwood-willow Riparian Forest, Sacaton Grasslands, Mesquite Bosques, & Semi-desert Grasslands support a very diverse plant and animal community. Ethnobotanist, Naturalist & Wildlife Biologist Vincent Pinto will guide you as you meander along this perennial creek and learn about the incomparable Bio-diversity of this lush and distinct riparian corridor!
