

RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS

PASSIVE RAINWATER HARVESTING: EARTHEN BERMS, CHECK DAMS, & HABITAT ISLANDS

Living in the arid Southwest, we feel that it is everyone's responsibility to use water wisely. To this end we will teach you how to construct long-lasting structures from natural and recycled materials that enhance your watershed & which benefit wildlife. You will see many examples of such projects at Raven's Nest Nature Sanctuary and together we will embark upon creating more! Led by Naturalist & Wildlife Biologist Vincent Pinto, this workshop will forever change how you view water and the landscape.

WHEN: MARCH 8

WHERE: RAVEN'S NEST, a 42-acre Nature Sanctuary by Patagonia Lake
