

RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS

SUSTAINABLE SURVIVAL SHELTERS CREATING A WILDERNESS ENCAMPMENT

Take away our modern buildings, tents, plastic, and other familiar materials and many would be at a loss as to how to shelter themselves from the elements! Now you can learn first-hand how to construct, live-in, and maintain both ephemeral and semi - permanent stone-age shelters. With the knowledge that you'll gain in the class, you'll soon be crafting your own wilderness shelters from earth, stone, plant, and other materials provided by Nature!

WHEN: NOVEMBER 18

TUITION: $55 - includes all materials for a full day of exciting activities, visit to our unique Stone-age Village, Nature Trails, fascinating Nature & Science Discovery Center, and much more!

WHERE: RAVEN'S NEST, our 42-acre private & pristine Nature Sanctuary near Patagonia Lake

Ethnobotanist, Naturalist, Wildlife Biologist, & Wilderness Survival Instructor, Vincent Pinto and his wife, Claudia, run RAVENS-WAY WILD JOURNEYS - dedicated to the Conservation and Protection of Nature, Wildlife, and the Environment through a wide variety of Eco-Friendly Programs and Adventures in the Sky Island Region! Vincent has been teaching & raising awareness of Nature throughout the country since 1987.
